A STUDY OF TYPES AND ANTITYPES

TYPE: a person, thing or event that symbolizes or represents another, especially another that is to come.

ANTITYPE: 1) the person or thing represented or foreshadowed by an earlier type or symbol.
2) an opposite type.

JESUS CHRIST FROM GENESIS TO REVELATION

Compiled by Sandra Walker

No study of this kind can ever hope to be exhaustive. But, if these pages stimulate others to look for themselves, or if they develop Jesus' character and purpose to cause one to exclaim, in glad surprise, as Mary did, "Rabboni; which is to say, Master," John 20:16 or Philip, when he found Nathanael, "and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law and the prophets, did write, JESUS," John 1:45 a purpose will have been served.

Some have questioned the advantage of a study of this nature, but scripture itself gives us an answer "Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples (Margin - types): and they are written for our admonition." 1 Corinthians 10:11

The end of all God's dealing with us, who are "the called according to His purpose," is that we should be "conformed to the image of His Son." Romans 8:28,29
At the end of this book one should see his or her life, as was that of Adam, Abel, Noah, Abraham, David and the many others, a
